

Key Patent INNOVATIONS

Key Patent Innovations is delighted to see Angela Quinlan, Anthony Kavanagh and David Mathews named in the IAM Strategy 300: The World's Leading IP Strategists for 2026.

We are also delighted to see our peers in Patent Platform Services listed again this year, namely Kapu Kumar, Paul Riley, Paul Seaman and Steve Pomraning.

Congratulations to you all!

The IAM200 is an annual, global ranking celebrating the top practitioners whose expertise and vision help organisations build, protect, and extract maximum value from their intellectual property portfolios. Being included in the IAM300 is a recognition of strategic thinking, deep industry knowledge, and a proven track record in turning IP into a powerful commercial asset. The list features leading minds from law, corporate, and consulting sectors who are shaping how intellectual property drives innovation and growth worldwide.
